Friday, October 2, 2009

 Intersectional Violence: Reading Gender and Gender Identity Politics 8 a.m.-5 p.m. TTU Student Union Building Second Floor The Women’s Studies Program and the Conference Program Committee at Texas Tech University, in conjunction with a public discussion. Contact the Women’s Studies Program (806) 742-3335 or visit their website for more details at http://www.depts.ttu.edu/wstudies.

Homecoming “Out” Week

Saturday, October 3, 2009

Homecoming “Out” Dance

7 p.m. Metropolitan Community Church (4501 University Ave.)

Homecoming “Out” dance gets all GLBTQ and allies for a night of dancing and entertainment. The Homecoming “Out” Kings and Queens will be elected and crowned at the dance.

Monday, October 5, 2009

OUTing: What Harm Can It Do? - Panel Discussion

7 p.m. TTU Human Science Building 109

A person can be “outed” for many reasons. Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity, being a Parent of a GLBTQ Child, HIV/AIDS Status, plus much more. Lubbock Community members discuss the harm in outing others.

Tuesday, October 6, 2009

“Shelby Knox Reined” Film Viewing and Panel Discussion

6:30 p.m. TTU Human Science Building 109

An epilogue to the 2005 film the Education of Shelby Knox, Shelby Knox Reined, takes viewers on a journey of personal awareness, family, faith, and transformation. Questions follow the film to emphasize the movie’s message. A Queer and Active Voice. Contact Trecia Earl, Coordinator, Women’s Studies Office for more details at 742-3335. www.depts.ttu.edu/wstudies.

Wednesday, October 7, 2009

Jason & deMarco: Musical Presentation & Dialogue

6:30 p.m. TTU Human Science Research 106

Jason & deMarco Atlanta have created their own signature sound combining their haunting melodies and breathtaking harmonies with strumming guitar, acoustic bass, drum sets, and their original hill songs. Their appeal is multi-generational, touching most everyone he touches them. www.jasonanddemarco.com

Saturday, October 10, 2009

“Your Passport to the World” TTU Homecoming Parade

Texas Tech University Campus

Come support Texas Tech University at the Homecoming Day Parade. For more information check out our website http://www.depts.ttu.edu/ath/StudentActivities/Homecoming/index.php.

Sunday, October 11, 2009 (National Coming Out Day)

“Journey to a Hate Free Millennium”

11 a.m. First Unitarian Universalist Church (2801 42nd St)

“Journey” explores the tragic murders of James Byrd Jr., Matthew Shepard, and the student shootings of Columbine High School to weave an emotional response to the problem of hate. Join the Unitarian Universalist Church and the Student Counseling Center in a provoking discussion about the film.

“Coming Out” Worship Celebration

11 a.m. Metropolitan Community Church (4501 University Ave.)

Worship Services and fellowship will be shared and celebrated at our morning worship service.

Monday, October 12, 2009

“The Laramie Project Epilogue, Ten Years Later”

6 p.m. Human Science Research 109

Sponsored by the Texas Tech Fine Arts Doctoral Program Student Committee. A part of our series entitled, "Drama of the Senses," this performance focuses on the long-term effects of the murder of Matthew Shepard on the town of Laramie. The play includes a new interview with the Matthew’s mother Judy Shepard and Matthew’s murderer Aaron McKinney, who’s serving two consecutive life sentences.

Friday, October 16, 2009

GLBTQ Allies Training for Faculty and Staff: Part I

11 a.m. TTU Student Wellness Center Room 109

Sponsored by the TTU Student Counseling Center. This two-part training series provides information and resources on how to become an ally to the GLBTQ+ community. Lunch served. RSVP to Rich Lenox: rich.lenox@ttu.edu or 742-2671.

Sunday, October 18, 2009

Worship and Concert with Rev. Delores Berry

11 a.m. & 6 p.m. Metropolitan Community Church (4501 University Ave.)

Come experience the dynamic ministry of Rev. Delores Berry. She will be sharing with us at our morning and her concert will be in the evening. Rev. Delores Berry is an out of the closet Christian Evangelist who Preaches, Prays, & Sings. She describes herself as a Christian, Gospel Singer, African American, Lesbian, Transgender. Rev. Berry and her spouse of over 22 years travel around the world sharing Jesus’ inclusive message, “God loves all people. God is love. God created all people. God is with all people. God’s Rainbow people too!”

Monday, October 19, 2009

Tough Guise: Violence, Media & the Crisis in Masculinity-Film & Discussion

6 p.m. TTU Human Science Building Room 109

Tough Guise is the first comprehensive research-based program designed to move college and high school students to systematically examining the relationship between pop-cultural imagery & the social construction of masculinity. In the U.S., at the dawn of the 21st century, Dr. Trecia Earl, Coordinator, Women’s Studies Office for details at 742-3335. www.depts.ttu.edu/wstudies.

Tuesday, October 20, 2009

PFLAG Lubbock, Monthly Meeting: Being a GLBTQ Red Raider

7 p.m. St. John’s United Methodist Church (1901 University Ave.)

Teach Tech University Gay-Straight Alliance Members & other Texas Tech students share their experiences of being out on campus.

Wednesday, October 21, 2009

Training: Increasing Access to Survivor Services: GLBTQ Community

6 a.m.-5 p.m. TTU Forensic Institute (444 S. Loop 289)

Thursday, October 22, 2009

Drinking, Dating, & Rape in the GLBTQ Community: “Talk Show” & Panel Discussion

6 p.m. TTU Human Science Building Room 109

Involvement in GLBTQ advocacy for the GLBTQ community and challenges the audience to consider how stereotypes about gender and sexuality contribute to their beliefs about rape. Cost is Free

Thursday, October 29, 2009

GLBTQ Allies Training for Students

5:30 p.m. TTU Human Science Room 222

This training provides valuable information and resources on how to become an ally to the GLBTQ community. No RSVP is needed.

Thursday, October 29, 2009

MILK (Rated R)

8 p.m. TTU Student Union Alien Theatre

In 1977, Harvey Milk (SeanPenn) was elected to the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, becoming the first openly gay man to be voted into major public office in America. His victory was not just a victory for gay rights, but forged coalitions across the political spectrum. From senior citizens to union workers, Harvey Milk changed the very nature of what it means to be a fighter for human rights and became, before his untimely death in 1978, a hero for all Americans.

Friday, October 30, 2009

Breast and Cervical Cancer screening exams & STD Screening

9 a.m.-2 p.m. Lubbock Women’s Health Clinic (602 W. Loop 289 Suite 109)

Screening on a sliding fee scale determined by family size & income. Women with history of tubal ligation or hysterectomy need to be prepared to pay $75 cash to cover cost of services. Patients need to bring driver’s license, birth certificate, social security card, & proof of income. Patient should bring child’s Medicaid card. WIC eligibility letter, proof of TanAid or food stamp eligibility A receipt for childcare expenses. Contact 806-898-9088 to schedule your Breast & Cardiovascular screening STD Screening w/ Family Planning. Appointments preferred, walk-ins taken on first come first served basis.

GLBTQ Allies Training for Faculty and Staff: Part II

11 a.m. TTU Student Wellness Center Room 109

This two-part training series provides information and resources on how to become an ally to the GLBTQ community. Lunch will be served. RSVP to Rich Lenox: rich.lenox@ttu.edu or 742-5674.

Free HIV/SYPHILIS Testing

11 a.m. - 5 p.m. SPCAA/Project CHAMPS (3307 Ave. X; corner of 54th & A)

Lubbock Regional NHMR Free HIV/SYPHILIS Testing Program will be giving free HIV/SYPHILIS testing. For details contact the Lubbock Regional NHMR at (806) 711-0730. Free condoms & information will be available to the public.

MILK (Rated R)

3 p.m. TTU Student Union Escalante Theatre

Matinee showing. See October 29th showing for details.

Saturday, October 31, 2009

MCC Lubbock Fall Carnival and Doorways Haunted House

7 p.m. Metropolitan Community Church (4501 University Ave)

MCC Lubbock is hosting a Fall Carnival with games, candy and prizes. Doorways is a youth group sponsoring a haunted house for adults and goblins of all ages.

A Special Thanks to:

PPFLAG Lubbock

Donate by visiting:

http://www.pplag.org

The many Organizations & Individuals who co-sponsored the GLBTQ Awareness Month.